

The Waits Machine.

Tom Waits har ikke givet koncert i Danmark siden 70'erne, men heldigvis har vi dette danske Waits-coverband, som gør det aldeles udmærket.

The Waits Machine opstod i Silkeborg og har siden 1999 fordybet sig i Waits' fabulerende lydunivers.

The Waits Machine præsenterer en collage af Waits-sange fra hele hans lange karriere, men med hovedvægten lagt på den skramlede cirkus-sigøjner-rock, som har været et Waits-varemærke siden 1980.

Der bliver derfor både hylet og skrålet, hvæset og skurret, når The Waits Machine skramler og banker sig igennem den amerikanske urbagård.

Tom Waits has not played in Denmark since the seventies, but luckily this Danish cover-band is doing a great job presenting his music live.

The Waits Machine was formed in Silkeborg in 1999 with the purpose of exploring the mystic sound and strange tales in the artistic sphere of Tom Waits.

The Waits Machine presents a broad live-review of Waits songs from his first to his latest album, but mainly you will experience the raggy circuslike gypsy rock, which has been his playground since 1980.

A concert experience like this is guaranteed to include howling and yelling, kicking and smashing, as The Waits Machine scrambles through the myths of the American underground.

The Waits Machine:

Trommer:	Jesper Karkov
Kontrabas:	Jens-Ole Møller Kristensen
Tangenter:	Rasmus Lindgren
Guitar:	Günther Paulsen
Vokal:	Mikkel Ravnsbo Søltoft

Booking: Mikkel Ravnsbo Søltoft
(Tlf 86 81 92 73)